

Don't SLIDE This SUMMER! READ!!!

School might be out, but don't stop reading!

Studies have shown that students who do not read over the summer tend to "slide" down their reading momentum when school starts back in the fall.

Don't let all the hard work they did this past school year go to waste!

Here are SEVERAL reading programs offered by different companies. They support Berkeley County students by providing programs to prevent the SUMMER SLIDE!

Barnes and Noble: Read and record 8 books. Once you have completed the log, go to a local store, and receive a FREE BOOK! (Rising 1-6)

Pizza Hut: Book It! for the summer! Kick off starts June 22.

Scholastic: The Scholastic Summer Reading Challenge is a free online program where students log the minutes they read, play games, earn virtual prizes, win awards, and enter sweepstakes. (K-8) <http://www.scholastic.com/ups/campaigns/src-2015> .

Sylvan – Students will search the books that are listed within their database, read the books, take a quiz, and earn PRIZES! (K-8) <http://www.bookadventure.com/home.aspx>

TD Bank: Read 10 books, fill out the form, and $10 will be put into the child's bank account at the bank. New accounts can be made! (K-5)
