Cane Bay Library Announces Grand Opening on June 5
Ribbon-Cutting and Celebration to be held Wednesday, June 5 at Noon

SUMMERVILLE, S.C. (Friday, May 3, 2019)- Berkeley County Library System announces the opening of the new Cane Bay Library on Wednesday, June 5, 2019. The ribbon-cutting ceremony will begin at noon.

The 4,500-square-foot library will include a community room, where regular programs will be held for the community, two study rooms, and a shared study room. The library will have materials in the following areas: Children, Young Adult, and Adult.

The new library is centrally located in the Cane Bay community, off U.S. Highway 176, next to the Cane Bay YMCA.

“We are excited to soon open the doors to a new Berkeley County Library in the Cane Bay community. This facility will provide learning opportunities not only for the residents of Cane Bay, but also the surrounding communities. We look forward to seeing the wonderful resources help people connect and discover new things.” - Director of Berkeley County Library System Gene Brunson
